The City of Madison Parks Division has an exciting opportunity, through the generous donation of Michael and Jocelyn Keiser, to reimagine municipal golf in Madison so that it may flourish for generations to come. Michael Keiser, who draws his eco-centric inspiration from renowned naturalists as well as age-old public courses in Scotland and Ireland, approached Madison Parks and the Madison Parks Foundation, to redesign and reconstruct the 9-hole Glenway Golf Course.

The community is invited to attend a public information meeting to learn more.
