

Expansion of Sheboygan Community Gardens /
Rennebohm Park Master Plan Amendment
Public Input Meeting

Thursday, March 8, 2018 6:00 PM
Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, 110 N Whitney Way

6:00 Welcome, Introductions

6:10 Project Background:

Brief description by City of Madison staff on the history of the Sheboygan / Hill Farms community garden including its original relocation from Hill Farms development site to Rennebohm Park and recap of the Hill Farms Area Community Garden Siting Project public input process to determine a site for additional garden plots.

George Reistad – Food Policy Coordinator, City of Madison Mayor’s Office

6:40 Findings from the Hill Farms Area Community Garden Staff Recommendations

Summary of the staff recommendations report

George Reistad – Food Policy Coordinator, City of Madison Mayor’s Office

7:00 Proposed Master Plan Amendment for Rennebohm Park

Presentation of proposed amendment to the master plan for Rennebohm Park which would add approximately 11,081 SF of community garden space, reroute the park’s asphalt walking path and relocate the softball/baseball backstop along with a brief overview of review and approval process.

Kate Kane – Landscape Architect, City of Madison Parks

7:30 Next Steps

Thank you!