4. Mediation

4.1 Policy

- 4.11 It is the policy of the Department of Civil Rights Equal Opportunities Commission to afford parties every opportunity to resolve a complaint of discrimination prior to going through the hearing process and the rendering of a decision by the Hearing Examiner.
- 4.12 The assistance of an EOD Mediator will be made available to the parties, throughout the process, upon request.

- 4.13 Parties to a complaint of discrimination may be represented by legal counsel or an advocate at mediation, however, representation is not required.

- 4.15 In cases where, upon acceptance of the Complaint, the Equal Opportunities Division intake person and Equal Opportunities Division Manager determine a matter to be appropriate for injunctive relief, the case will be assigned immediately to an Investigator. The assistance of an EOD Mediator will still be available to the parties while the investigation proceeds.

4.2 Early Mediation

- 4.21 Within ten (10) business days of the EOD's acceptance of a Complaint, a Notice of Early Mediation, giving the date, time, location and name and contact information for the Mediator, shall be mailed or transmitted electronically to the Complainant and Respondent along with service of the Complaint..
- 4.22 Early Mediation shall be concluded no later than 30 days following the EOD's acceptance of the Complaint except as identified in 4.221.
 - 4.221 Should circumstances require that the mediation be rescheduled for a date later than 30 days following the EOD's acceptance of the Complaint, an Investigator will be assigned to the Complaint, and the investigation shall proceed while the mediation is still pending.
- 4.23 Early Mediation will be a voluntary process. Should either party choose to waive participation in mediation, they shall notify the Mediator assigned to their case at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled mediation.
 - 4.231 If either party waives participation in mediation, the case shall be assigned within five business days to an Investigator to determine whether or not probable cause exists to believe that the Ordinance may have been violated.
 - 4.232 Complaints may be resolved in ways that could include, but are not limited to, private settlements, public settlements that the Commission may be a party to, and public or private partial settlements, in which claims of some, but not all, of the allegations are resolved.
 - 4.233 If the mediation is unsuccessful, within five business days the case shall be assigned to an Investigator to determine whether or not probable cause exists to believe that the Ordinance may have been violated.
 - 4.234 If the mediation is successful, the Complainant shall sign an EOD Withdrawal Form, withdrawing their Complaint, and the EOD will take no further action.

5. Investigation

5.1 General Procedure

- 5.11 All complaints filed as stated in Equal Opportunities Commission (EOC) Rule 3.1 above shall be investigated to determine whether or not probable cause exists to believe that the Ordinance may have been violated. - 5.24 An Investigator shall provide the parties and their attorneys or advocates with an opportunity to submit additional information to support their positions.
- 5.25 When an Investigator determines that they have gathered sufficient information, a 10-Day Letter will be sent to all parties. The 10-Day Letter notifies the parties of the expected date of an Initial Determination and provides the parties with a final opportunity to submit additional information.
- 5.26 When the 10-day period expires, an Initial Determination is issued with a conclusion of Probable Cause, No Probable Cause, or a combination of Probable Cause and No Probable Cause to believe discrimination may have occurred.

5.3 Fact Finding Conference

5.31 Participation during Investigation

- 5.311 Participation by the parties during an Investigation is required.
- 5.312 If a party refuses to participate in a Fact Finding conference or otherwise fails to provide requested information or evidence, they may be required by subpoena to appear at the EOD offices and to provide the requested information. The failure of a party to provide requested information or evidence may be used as the basis for a negative finding with respect to that information or evidence.

5.313 Failure of the Complainant to participate in a Fact Finding conference or other investigative process may result in an administrative dismissal, pursuant to EOC Rule 3.42.

5.32 Appearance of Attorneys and Lay Advocates at Investigative Fact Finding Conferences.

5.321 Attorneys and/or lay advocates may appear on a party's behalf. However, it is mandatory that the parties themselves also be present at a scheduled Fact Finding Conference.

5.322 An attorney or lay advocate may not answer questions on behalf of a party, but that party may consult with the attorney or lay advocate prior to answering a question that has been posed.

5.323 An attorney or lay advocate may advise a party not to answer a particular question.

5.324 In the event that a party fails to appear at a Fact Finding Conference, the appearance of that party's attorney and/or lay advocate shall not excuse the party's non-appearance and the Fact Finding Conference shall be deemed canceled. An Investigator may write an Initial Determination without rescheduling the Fact Finding Conference.

5.33 Record of Fact Finding Conference

5.331 An Investigator shall make and retain a written record of a Fact Finding Conference in a party's file.

5.332 The written record of the Fact Finding Conference shall include the names and addresses of all persons appearing at the conference, a statement summarizing the positions of the parties, and a summary of the evidence provided by each person in attendance.

5.333 The notes taken by an Investigator during the Fact Finding Conference may serve as the written record of the conference, provided that the notes satisfy the requirements of EOC Rule 5.332.

5.34 Electronic Recordation

5.341 The EOC may, in its discretion, make an electronic recording of a Fact Finding Conference, which shall be available for review by an Investigator to aid in the rendering of an Initial Determination. Such recording shall be made available to the Hearing Examiner pursuant to EOC Rule 6.46.

6. Initial Determination

- 6.1 At the close of an investigation, an Investigator shall issue a written Initial Determination as to whether there is probable cause to believe that the Ordinance may have been violated and on what facts such determination is based. Copies of the Initial Determination shall be sent to the parties and their attorneys and/or lay advocates.
- 6.2 Dismissal of a Complaint Before the Issuance of an Initial Determination.
- 6.21 If the Department of Civil Rights, Equal Opportunities Division (EOD) experiences difficulty in contacting a Complainant before the issuance of an Initial Determination, the following procedure shall be used before the EOD dismisses a complaint.
- 6.211 The EOD shall send a letter to the Complainant's last known address and email address.
- 6.212 Such letter shall specify that the Complainant must submit to the EOD a written response reaffirming the desire to pursue the complaint no later than 15 days from the letter's date of issuance.
- 6.213 The Complainant's failure to respond within the 15-day time period shall be sufficient basis to dismiss the complaint.
- 6.214 If the EOD's letter to the Complainant is returned as undeliverable, the complaint may be dismissed at any time by the EOD Manager.
- 6.3 Initial Determinations of Probable Cause, No Probable Cause, or a Combination of Both
- 6.31 An Investigator may find Probable Cause, No Probable Cause, or a combination of Probable Cause/No Probable Cause, according to the issues presented in the complaint.
- 6.32 The Complainant may appeal any part of the Initial Determination which finds No Probable Cause.
- 6.33 An Initial Determination of Probable Cause may not be appealed by a Respondent.
- 6.34 Where an Investigator issues an Initial Determination of Probable Cause/No Probable Cause, further proceedings for issues where Probable Cause was found shall be stayed until any issues for which No Probable Cause was found are resolved.
- 6.4 Appeals of No Probable Cause to the Hearing Examiner
- 6.41 A Complainant may file a written appeal via U.S. Mail, electronically or in person, no later than 15 days after the receipt of an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause. In the written appeal, the Complainant shall state specifically the grounds upon which the Initial Determination should be reversed. The EOD shall notify a Respondent that an appeal has been filed within 10 days of receiving the appeal.

- 6.42 In an appeal from an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to submit additional evidence or arguments to the Hearing Examiner. Any such evidence or arguments must be submitted in writing via U.S. Mail, electronically or in person.
- 6.43 The Hearing Examiner may grant one extension of no more than 15 days for the submission of additional evidence or arguments.
- 6.44 A request for discovery will be considered separately from a request for an extension. Discovery shall be permitted in an appeal from an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause in accordance with EOC Rule 9.15.
- 6.45 The Hearing Examiner shall review and consider the investigative file to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that a Complainant suffered discrimination in violation of the Ordinance. As part of the review of the investigative file, the Hearing Examiner may consider the record of any Fact Finding Conference and any additional evidence submitted by the parties.
- 6.46 The Hearing Examiner will review and consider any electronic recording of a Fact Finding Conference upon the written request of either party. Such a request must be submitted before the expiration of the period allowed for the submission of additional evidence or arguments provided by EOC Rule 6.42.
- 6.47 The Hearing Examiner shall issue a Decision and Order on Review of Initial Determination of No Probable Cause either affirming or reversing, in whole or in part, an Initial Determination. Alternatively, the Hearing Examiner may issue a Decision and Order vacating an Initial Determination and remanding the case to an Investigator for further investigation or findings.
- 6.48 If the Hearing Examiner reverses an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause, the complaint shall be transferred to conciliation.
- 6.49 In the case of a Decision and Order reversing an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause, if the Hearing Examiner is unable to contact the Complainant to schedule a Pre-Hearing Conference within 15 days of issuance, the Hearing Examiner will issue a Notice of Dismissal subject to EOC Rule 3.42.
- 6.410 In the case of a Decision and Order that affirms only part of an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause, if the Hearing Examiner is unable to contact the Complainant to schedule a Pre-Hearing Conference within 15 days of issuance, and the Complainant did not appeal the No Probable Cause affirmation, the Hearing Examiner shall issue a Notice of Dismissal subject to EOC Rule 3.42.
- 6.5 Appeals of No Probable Cause Affirmations to the Equal Opportunities Commission
- 6.51 If the Hearing Examiner affirms an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause, a Complainant may, pursuant to EOC Rule 12, submit a written appeal via U.S. Mail, electronically or in person, to the EOD within 15 days of receipt of the Hearing Examiner's Decision and Order.

- 6.52 The EOC may consider the following:
 - 6.521 The record compiled by an Investigator.
 - 6.522 Any additional documents or arguments submitted to the Hearing Examiner.
 - 6.523 Any briefs properly submitted by the parties, their attorney or lay advocates.
 - 6.524 Any oral arguments deemed appropriate by the EOC.
 - 6.5241 The parties must submit a request in writing, via U.S. Mail, electronically or in person, stating good cause for the need for oral argument.
 - 6.5242 If the EOC deems that good cause has not been shown it need not grant oral argument.
- 6.53 The EOC may find Probable Cause, No Probable Cause or a combination of Probable/No Probable Cause according to the issues presented in the complaint.
 - 6.531 If the EOC finds Probable Cause, the complaint shall be transferred to conciliation.
 - 6.532 If the EOC finds No Probable Cause to believe the Ordinance may have been violated, the finding shall constitute the final order of the Commission.
 - 6.533 If the EOC is unable to find Probable Cause or No Probable Cause, the complaint shall be remanded to an Investigator for further investigation or findings or to the Hearing Examiner for further findings.
- 6.54 In the event the EOC determines there is NO PROBABLE CAUSE, the EOC shall issue an order dismissing the complaint or the issue(s) in the complaint to which No Probable Cause applies.
- 6.6 Dismissal of a Complaint after the Issuance of a Decision and Order on Review of Initial Determination
 - 6.61 The Hearing Examiner may dismiss a complaint pursuant to EOC Rules 3.412 and 3.413 if they experience difficulty in contacting a Complainant at any time after the issuance of a Decision and Order on Review of Initial Determination of No Probable Cause.
 - 6.62 The following procedure shall be used before the Hearing Examiner administratively dismisses a complaint:
 - 6.621 Where the Hearing Examiner's Decision and Order or Notice of Pre-Hearing Conference is email and/or mailed via receipt verified to the Complainant and either document is returned to the EOD as undeliverable, the Hearing Examiner shall re-mail the appropriate document via regular mail to the Complainant's last known address.

- 6.622 In the case of a Decision and Order affirming an Initial Determination of No Probable Cause, the Hearing Examiner will issue a Notice of Dismissal subject to EOC Rule 3.42, if the Complainant does not submit a written appeal via U.S. Mail, electronically or in person, to the Hearing Examiner within 15 days of issuance.

11.2 Temporary Injunctive Relief

11.21 General Procedure

The Department of Civil Rights (DCR) Director or the Director's designee may, in appropriate cases, request that the City Attorney file a civil action in circuit court for the purpose of securing temporary injunctive relief pending a final decision by the EOC with respect to a complaint alleging discrimination under Madison General Ordinance Section 39.03 provided:

- 11.211 that any such request be made in accordance with the provisions of EOC Rules 11.21 through 11.24;
- 11.212 that an Equal Opportunities Division (EOD) Investigator has conducted an expedited investigation pursuant to EOC Rule 11.22, and has concluded:
 - 11.2121 that there is probable cause to believe an act of discrimination has been or is being committed, and
 - 11.2122 that temporary injunctive relief is necessary to prevent the Respondent from performing an act which would tend to render ineffectual any order the Commission or its designee may enter with respect of the complaint, which act the Respondent is likely to perform unless restrained from doing so; and
- 11.213 that the DCR Director or the Director's designee has determined:
 - 11.2131 that the Complainant has a reasonable likelihood of success on the merits;
 - 11.2132 that temporary injunctive relief is necessary to preserve the status quo,

 - 11.2134 that the Complainant does not have an adequate remedy at law.

11.22 Expedited Investigations

- 11.221 Upon the filing of a formal complaint alleging discrimination under Madison General Ordinance Section 39.03, an EOD Investigator shall immediately determine, on the basis of the complaint and other available information, whether a request for injunctive relief may be appropriate.
- 11.222 In the event it is determined that injunctive relief may be appropriate, the Investigator shall immediately undertake an expedited investigation of the complaint and make reasonable efforts to promptly notify the Respondent that a discrimination complaint has been filed and that an expedited investigation of the complaint will be conducted.
- 11.223 The expedited investigation shall be completed no later than the close of the second working day following the day the complaint is filed.

11.23 Results of Expedited Investigations

- 11.231 In the event the Investigator determines there is probable cause to believe discrimination has been or is being committed, and that temporary injunctive relief is necessary to prevent the Respondent from performing an act which would tend to render ineffectual any order the Commission or its designee may enter with respect to the complaint, which act the Respondent is likely to perform unless restrained from doing so, the Investigator shall promptly forward the complaint file to the DCR Director or to the Director's designee.
- 11.232 The Investigator shall also prepare and deliver to the DCR Director, or to the Director's designee, a written summary of the investigation and the conclusions. A written initial determination need not be issued at this time, but shall be issued as soon as practicable.

11.24 Transfer to the City Attorney

- 11.241 Upon receipt of the Investigator's written summary and the complaint file, the DCR Director or the Director's designee shall review the same and determine whether to request that the City Attorney file a civil action in the circuit court for the purpose of securing temporary injunctive relief before the EOC issues a final decision about a complaint alleging housing discrimination. Said determination shall be made not later than close of the third working day following the day the complaint is filed.
- 11.242 In the event the DCR Director or the Director's designee elects to request that the City Attorney file an action in the circuit court for the purpose of securing temporary injunctive relief, the DCR Director or the Director's designee shall forward a written request to the City Attorney that such an action be filed. In addition, the DCR Director or the Director's designee shall attempt to notify the Respondent or the Respondent's representative, attorney or agent of the decision to seek temporary injunctive relief by any means likely to promptly convey notice to the Respondent, and shall make a written record of all such attempts.

11.25 Conciliation Conference

11.251 Whenever the circuit court grants temporary injunctive relief, the EOC shall endeavor to hold a conciliation conference with the parties within three working days after the date the injunction or restraining order is issued. In the event conciliation is unsuccessful, is waived by either party, or a conciliation conference cannot be held within the period prescribed by this rule, within three working days the complaint shall be certified to a public hearing.

11.26 Injunctive Relief Hearing

11.261 A public hearing shall be held no more than fourteen (14) days after the complaint is certified to hearing. The Hearing Examiner shall issue the Recommended Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order within five (5) working days following the date the hearing concludes.

11.27 Waiver of Time Limitations

11.271 The parties and the DCR Director or the Director's designee may enter into an agreement setting aside any of the time limits prescribed by EOC Rules 11.21 through 11.26. Such agreement must be made in writing.

involve the application of established law to the facts and does not involve a determination of liability.

12.322 The Appeals Committee certification shall include the relevant facts of the case, the options for a decision and the reason why the appeal should be heard by the EOC.

12.323 The Appeals Committee certification shall be served upon the parties by mail and/or electronic transmission. The parties shall have 15 days from the date of the certification to respond. Any response by the parties shall be served upon the EOC pursuant to EOC Rules 13.11 and 13.12.
