"Our Story"

A 2021 PHOTO EVENT

Photos tell a story and allow us to share a part of ourselves with others. They capture moments in time and in our hearts.

A MMOCA Gallery
Night Participant

"When words become unclear, I shall focus with photographs. When images become inadequate, I shall be content with silence."
Ansel Adams

JUDGING

There will be at least three independent judges who are either professional photographers or have comparable knowledge and experience.

Judges will not be able to see the names until judging is complete. The judges must reach a consensus on all awards except for the "Judge's Choice." Judges decisions are final.

The Madison Senior Center respects and values each photo and takes special precautions in handling and displaying all entries.

All artists display their work at their own risk with no responsibility for damages assumed by the Madison Senior Center.
