

Attention all area residents, students, transit riders and writers:

Call for Poetry

Bus Lines is Now Bilingual!

Metro Transit and Madison's Poets Laureate invite you to send short poems, haiku, prose poems, or excerpts from longer poems, 3-5 lines total, to the Bus Lines 2015/16 open call for poetry. Submissions can be made in English, Spanish or even Spanglish!

The theme again this year is "Write Your Madison." Help us see what you see and hear what you hear. Share your poetry stories about Madison with the thousands of passengers who share the bus with you every day. Select poems will be chosen to appear on Metro promotional materials.

Featured poems will be chosen from the following categories:

Elementary Students, Middle School Students, High School Students, and Adults (18+).

Submissions can include up to (3) poems. Students should include their name, school, grade and sponsoring adult if under 18. Please also include a contact phone and/or email for both the student and sponsoring adult.

Adult entrants should include their name, phone and email address.

Please send entries to mymetrobus@cityofmadison.com or mailed to:
Metro Transit, Attn: Bus Lines Poetry, 1245 E. Washington Ave., Suite 201, Madison, WI 53703.

Entries must be submitted by January, 31 2016. All submissions are final.

For more information call 266-4466 or visit mymetrobus.com/poetry.